

Superintendent's Top Sixteen Scholars 2011

We are proud to introduce Dr. Camille Nasbe's top sixteen scholars for 2011 and honor the teachers these students have selected as their "Most Influential Teacher" during their years in the district.

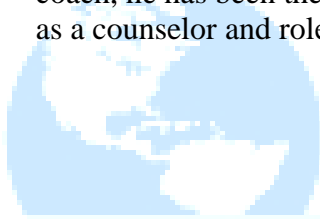

Christina Ingle

Daughter of Lori Ingle of Forest Park

College: Bowling Green State University – International Studies

Most Influential Teacher: Adam Gergen

"Not only has Mr. Gergen been an effective teacher and coach, he has been there for me for any personal problems as a counselor and role model."

Cultivating a World

WINTON WOODS
CITY SCHOOLS

Chhayly Chea

Son of Marann Nou of Forest Park

University of Cincinnati – Engineering

Most Influential Teacher – Jim Breyer

"Mr. Breyer not only taught us calculus, but also about his experience in the adult world. He gives us advice that will help us in the future."

Malcolm Thompson

Son of Clifford and Henrietta Thompson of Forest Park

Bowling Green State University – International Business

Most Influential Teacher – Larry Day

“Mr. Day has been the most influential in my education because he helped me develop many skills such as leadership, cooperation and respect that have allowed me to view school as a place of more than just learning in a classroom.”

Cultivating a World Class Education

Renee Chandler

Daughter of Jim and Rachel Chandler of Springfield Township

Miami University – English

Most Influential Teacher – Michelle Sisk

“It is Mrs. Sisk’s work ethic and efficiency that has influenced me to become a librarian and I really appreciate her constant presence in the defining years of my life.”

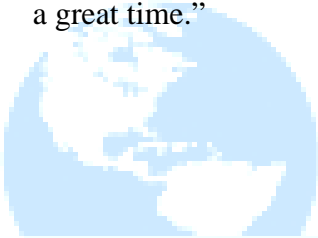

Corey Stewart

Son of Tina Stewart of Forest Park

The Ohio State University – Nursing

Most Influential Teacher – Mary Barnes
“This teacher, no, my supporter, my school mom, the person I look up to has been in my life since I first walked into her room in 2001. She even came to the musical just to see me perform and have a great time.”

Cultivating a World Class Education

Lachelle Brooks

Daughter of Melonie Brooks of Forest Park

The Ohio State University – Zoology

Most Influential Teacher – Michele Stahl
“Mrs. Stahl has never been afraid to give me healthy criticism. She pushed me to do better than my best and taught me a lot more than AP English.”

Chintan Patel

Son of Ramesh and Hansa Patel of Forest Park

University of Cincinnati – Civil Engineering

Most Influential Teacher – Jim Breyer

“Mr. Breyer has helped me realize that nothing is impossible, especially when it comes to his class. He has showed me that giving up is never an option.”

Cultivating a World

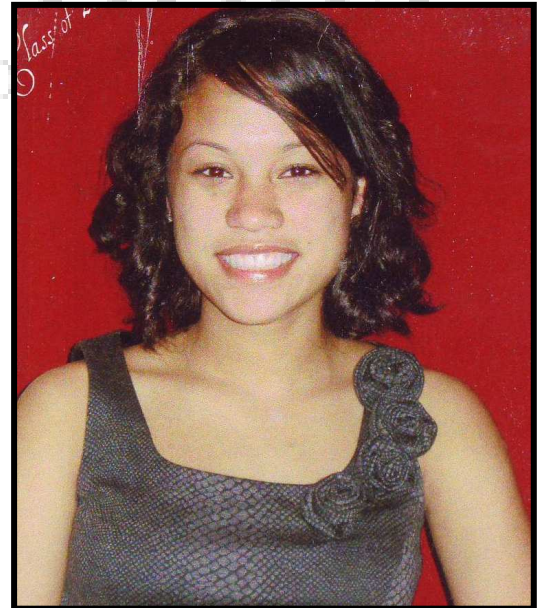

Jennifer Jordan

Daughter of John and Jeanette Jordan of Springfield Township

Georgetown College – Nursing Arts

Most Influential Teacher – Dave Bell

“Mr. Bell is intelligent, but always learning, and humble but always succeeding. He pushes me and my peers beyond what we ever expect from ourselves and I’m so grateful that he does.”

Jacqueline Rodriguez

Daughter of Greg Rodriguez of Forest Park

University of Cincinnati – Entrepreneurship

Most Influential Teacher – Dave Bell

“Mr. Bell is my choir director but he has taught me much more than music. He’s taught me to not be afraid to exceed what is expected of me. He’s become someone I’ll always respect and never forget.”

Cultivating a World Class Education

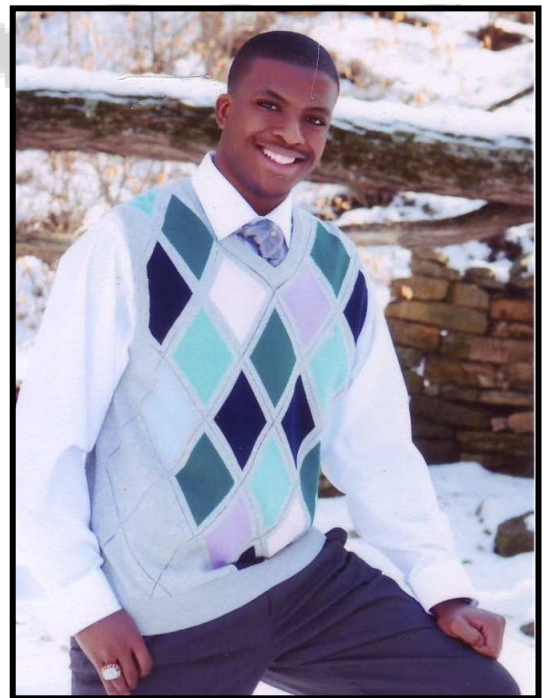

Aaron Patton

Son of Dale Patton and Jane Bryant of Springfield Township

The Ohio State University – Mechanical Engineering

Most Influential Teacher - Myrtis Smith

“Mrs. Smith has helped me find a career path in which I intend on following for the rest of my life. Through her lesson plans and her hands on activities, I have not only learned about the field of engineering but how to problem solve in everyday life.”

Kaitlin Otto

Daughter of Jay and Jennifer Otto of Greenhills

University of Cincinnati – Elementary Education

Most Influential Teacher – Michelle Kozlowski
“Mrs. Kozlowski is always there pushing me to do better, whether for acting or for school. She is someone I can joke around with and someone who I can talk to about serious things. She has brought out my true potential.”

Cultivating a World Class Education

Katelyn Sherman

Daughter of Kim and Matt Sherman of Springfield Township

The Ohio State University – Marketing or Graphic Design

Most Influential Teacher – Adam Gergen
“Mr. Gergen is just one of those teachers you can connect to. He cares about what’s going on in your life, school related and non-school related. He is always there to help. He’s a great teacher and a great friend!”

Jade Lewis

Daughter of Dennis and Stephanie Moore of Forest Park

University of Kentucky – Nursing

Most Influential Teacher – Ann Erhart
“Mrs. Erhart has a positive attitude and she encourages that attitude in her students. She reminds her students how important it is to take one’s education seriously. I feel she genuinely cares about her students.”

Cultivating a World Class Education

Sonya Sorrells

Daughter of Donald and Regina Sorrells of Forest Park

University of Cincinnati – Political Science and Business

Most Influential Teacher – Christine Townsell
“Mrs. Townsell is one of the main reasons I am who I am today. I will never forget how she always told me to put forth my best effort. I followed her advice, and now I am in the top sixteen of my graduating class.”

Rebekah Lowery

Daughter of Leicester and Virginia Lowery of Forest Park

The Ohio State University – Biochemistry

Most Influential Teacher – Ann McGahan
“Ms. McGahan has made science fun, with her sense of humor, creative labs and even staying after hours to give extra help. I can excitedly say that she is the reason why I want to go into biochemistry.”

Cultivating a

Alicia Higgins

Daughter of Nate and Ora Higgins of Forest Park

The Ohio State University – Biology

Most Influential Teacher – Shannon Curran
“As well as teaching her students English, Ms. Curran taught us how to be respectful, how to present ourselves to others and to always believe in yourself. Ms. Curran is a great teacher who has greatly influenced my education.”

WINTON WOODS
CITY SCH

