

DOG REGULATIONS

Adopted on March 13, 2018

CHAPTER 1
SCOPE AND ADMINISTRATION

SECTION 101
GENERAL

101.1 Title. These regulations shall be known as the Springfield Township Dog Regulations, hereinafter referred to as "these regulations."

101.2 Repeal of Prior Resolutions Pertaining to the Control of Dogs in the Township. As is stated with more specificity in Resolution No. ~~XX~~-2018, these regulations are enacted pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 955.221 and repeal and replace all of the previously-enacted resolutions of Springfield Township pertaining to the control of dogs within the Township.

101.3 Scope. The provisions of these regulations shall apply to all dogs in Springfield Township.

101.4 Intent. These regulations shall be construed to secure their expressed intent, which is to ensure public health, safety and welfare insofar as they are affected by the behavior of dogs.

101.5 Severability. If a section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of these regulations is, for any reason, held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of these regulations.

SECTION 102
APPLICABILITY

102.1 General. The provisions of these regulations shall apply to all matters affecting or relating to dogs in Springfield Township. Nothing in these regulations is intended to conflict with any provision of the Ohio Revised Code.

102.2 Existing remedies. The provisions of these regulations shall not be construed to abolish or impair existing remedies of Springfield Township or its officers or agents relating to the registration of dogs, impounding dogs, citation, detention, or removal of nuisance, dangerous, vicious dogs, as prescribed by Ohio law.

CHAPTER 2 DEFINITIONS

SECTION 201 GENERAL

201.1 Scope. Unless otherwise expressly stated, the following terms shall, for the purposes of these regulations, have the meanings shown in this chapter.

201.2 Interchangeability. Words stated in the present tense include the future; words stated in the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter; the single number includes the plural and the plural, the singular.

201.3 Terms not defined. Where terms are not defined in these regulations the usual customary definition shall apply.

201.4 Capitalization. Defined words may begin with an uppercase or lower case letter, interchangeably and without significance as to their meaning.

SECTION 202 GENERAL DEFINITIONS

ACCESSORY BUILDING. An accessory building is a structure located on the same property as a principal building, but incidental and subordinate thereto. Accessory building includes such buildings as sheds and detached garages.

BREEZEWAY. A breezeway is a roofed passageway connecting two buildings, with or without enclosed sides.

CARPORT. A carport is a roofed structure not more than fifty percent (50%) enclosed by walls or doors and attached to the principal building for the purpose of providing shelter to one or more automobiles.

GARAGE, ATTACHED. An attached garage is an accessory structure which is commonly used for the parking or temporary storage of automobiles, boats, trailers and/or yard equipment and which is attached to the principal building on the property.

GARAGE, DETACHED. A detached garage is an accessory structure which is commonly used for the parking or temporary storage of automobiles, boats, trailers and/or yard equipment and which is not attached to the principal building on the property.

HARBORER. A harborer is any person who has possession and control of the premises where a dog lives and acquiesces, even silently, to the dog's presence.

KEEPER. A keeper is any person who has physical control over a dog.

OWNER. An owner is any person to whom a dog belongs.

OUTDOORS. Outdoors means outside of any building.

PERSON. An individual, corporation, partnership or any group acting as a unit.

PORCH, CLOSED. A closed porch is a roofed structure which has one or more enclosed sides and projects from the front, side, or rear wall of a building.

PORCH, OPEN. An open porch is a roofed structure which has one or more unenclosed sides and which projects from the front, side or rear wall of a building.

PREMISES. A lot, plot or parcel of land, easement or public way, including any structures thereon.

PRINCIPAL BUILDING. A principal building is the building which houses the principal use of the property. The principal building in a residentially-zoned district is typically the house on the property.

PROPERTY. Property has the same meaning as “premises” as that term is defined herein.

TETHER. A tether is a rope, chain, cord, line, dog run, pulley, or similar device by which a dog is fastened so as to restrict its range of motion.

TOWNSHIP. Township refers to Springfield Township.

CHAPTER 3
TETHERING RESTRICTIONS

SECTION 301
GENERAL PROHIBITIONS

301.1 Tethering prohibited: No owner, keeper or harborer of a dog shall tether or allow the dog to be tethered outside, in an accessory building, in any attached garage, in any porch (open or closed), in any breezeway or carport:

- (a) between the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.
- (b) for more than six (6) hours in any twenty-four (24) hour period;
- (c) for any amount of time if a heat or cold advisory or a severe weather warning has been issued by the National Weather Service for the area in which the dog is kept or harbored;
- (d) for any amount of time if the owner, keeper, harborer of the dog or other person over the age of 16 is not present; or
- (e) for any amount of time if the tether:
 - i. is less than twenty (20) feet in length;
 - ii. allows the dog to touch a fence or cross the property line of the property on which the dog is tethered;
 - iii. is attached by means of a pinch-type, prong-type, choke-type, or otherwise unsafe or not properly fitted collar;
 - iv. is likely to cause injury to, or entanglement of, the dog;
 - v. is made of a material that is unsuitable for the dog's size and/or weight or causes any unnecessary discomfort to the dog;
 - vi. restricts the dog to an area that is unsanitary due to an accumulation of feces, urine, other waste, insect or rodent infestation, or foul odor;

- vii. does not permit the dog to reach clean, potable drinking water at all times while the dog is tethered.

CHAPTER 4
BARKING OR HOWLING DOGS

SECTION 401
GENERAL PROHIBITIONS

401.1 Unlawful acts. No owner, keeper, or harborer of a dog shall keep or harbor a dog within the Township which, by frequent and habitual barking, howling, yowling, yelping, or other audible sounds, creates unreasonably loud or disturbing noise of such a character, intensity and duration so as to disturb the peace and quiet of the neighborhood or to cause serious disturbance to one or more persons of ordinary sensibilities, inhabiting a residence in the Township.

401.2 Frequent and Habitual Defined. For purposes of this Section, "frequent and habitual" shall be defined as any continuous period of time that exceeds thirty (30) minutes in duration between the hours of 11:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. and exceeds forty-five minutes between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 11:00 p.m.

401.2 Exceptions. This Section does not apply to:

- (a) any dog which is lawfully engaged in hunting or training for the purpose of hunting while accompanied by a licensed hunter. However, such dogs at all other times and in all other respects, shall be subject to this regulation;
- (b) any dog that is owned housed temporarily in a duly licensed veterinary hospital, kennel or animal boarding establishment; and
- (c) any dog which is barking, howling, yowling, yelping or making other audible sounds due to reasonable and continuous provocation of another animal or nearby pedestrian during the continuous period of time that the dog barks. However, in the event that this exception is utilized on a routine basis by a particular dog or dogs, the owner, keeper or harbinger of the dog or dogs will only be excepted from prosecution for a violation of this Section if he/she can demonstrate that he/she has taken remedial steps to change the environment of the dog(s) so as to avoid the exposure to the provocation or that remedial steps cannot reasonably be taken due to the actions of the provoking animals or pedestrians.

CHAPTER 5
UNSANITARY CONDITIONS

SECTION 5
UNSANITARY CONDITIONS

501.1 Unlawful acts. No person shall keep or harbor any dog in the Township so as to create noxious or offensive odors or unsanitary conditions which adversely impact the health, comfort, or safety of the dog and/or the public.

CHAPTER 6
ENFORCEMENT

SECTION 601
UNLAWFUL ACTS

601.1 Unlawful acts. It shall be unlawful for a person to be in conflict with or in violation of any of the provisions of these regulations.

SECTION 602
PENALTIES AND FINES

602.1 Violation Penalties. Any person who violates any of these regulations or any regulation or order adopted pursuant to these regulations is guilty of a minor misdemeanor.

602.2 Enforcement. This regulation shall be unforced under Revised Code §§ 955.221(C) and 955.99(K).

602.3 Continuing Violation. Each day of continued violation is a separate offense.

602.4. Fine Distribution. The Hamilton County Clerk of Courts shall collect the fines levied and collected for violations of this regulation and shall distribute them to the Fiscal Officer of Springfield Township in accordance with Revised Code §1907.20(C) for credit to the general fund of Springfield Township.

SECTION 603
ABATEMENT AND OTHER LAWFUL REMEDIES

603.1 Abatement of violation. The imposition of the fines and penalties herein prescribed shall not preclude Springfield Township from instituting, by and through its law director, appropriate action to enjoin, restrain, correct or abate a violation, or to stop an illegal act.
